Explore Study Abroad for Arabic: Presentation, Photos, Q&A

Co-sponsored with the Arabic Program of the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies at Hunter College

This event is for students who are thinking to study abroad to learn Arabic. Students who spent time in the Arab Middle East and North Africa recently will share with the audience their experiences learning Arabic. Professor Christopher Stone, Chair of the Arabic program at Hunter College, will speak about Hunter’s Arabic Language in Amman in January and will answer questions.

Samantha Colella and Elizabeth Ramirez, students in the Master’s Program in Middle Eastern Studies at the Graduate Center, went to Rabat and studied at Qalam wa Lawh [www.qalamcenter.com/], Samantha in October 2013 and Elizabeth June 2014. Samantha will present their experiences.

Nicholas Micinski (PhD student in Political Science) received the prestigious Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) to study at the American School of Tangier (administered by the Arab-American Language Institute in Morocco (AALIM) [www.aalimorocco.com] in summer 2014.

Chris Rominger (PhD student in History) will speak about his experiences in Tunis in 2013-2014.

Finding MEMEAC space (6304.24) at the Graduate Center, CUNY

1) Take the elevator to the 6th floor.
2) Get out on the side where there are computer monitors.
3) Make a left, go through the door that says Psychology.
4) Take the 2nd hallway to the right.
5) MEMEAC is at the end of that hallway.