Eric Bogosian, “a born storyteller with perfect pitch” (New York Times), comes to the GC to present his new book Operation Nemesis: The Assassination that Avenged the Armenian Genocide (Little, Brown and Company, 2015). In a riveting narrative rich with historical detail, Bogosian gives the first full account of a secret plot by assassins, in 1921, to avenge the deaths of almost one million victims of genocide.

A well-known actor, playwright, monologuist and novelist of Armenian descent, Bogosian was a Pulitzer Prize finalist for his play Talk Radio; he has received several Obie Awards, a Guggenheim fellowship, and two NEA fellowships, among many honors. He has also written three novels: Mall, Wasted Beauty, and Perforated Heart.
