For Syria:
An Evening of Poetry in Translation

Featuring Syrian poetry by Najat Abdul Samad, Faraj Bayraqdar, Muhammad al-Maghut, Firas Sulaiman, Nizar Qabbani, Liwaa Yazji and many others

Readers Include:

Ammiel Alcalay (Queens and the Graduate Center, CUNY),
Ali Adeeb Alnaemi (Iraqi, contributes to Jadaliyya, Raseef 22, Frontline-PBS, Al-Jazeera in Arabic),
Sinan Antoon (Gallatin School, NYU),
Habiba Boumlik (LaGuardia, CUNY),
Sami Shalom Chetrit (Queens, CUNY),
Alexander Elinson (Hunter, and the Graduate Center, CUNY),
Alexa Firt (Temple University),
Andrea Khalil (Queens and the Graduate Center, CUNY),
Suha Kudsieh (College of Staten Island, CUNY),
Christa Salamandra (Lehman and the Graduate Center, CUNY),
Roger Sedarat (Queens College, CUNY),
Jonathan H. Shannon (Hunter and the Graduate Center, CUNY),
Christopher Stone (Hunter and the Graduate Center, CUNY),
Shareah Taleghani (Queens, CUNY).

Calligraphy by Lebanese Artist Hussein Majed
Translation: “One bird is enough for the sky not to fall” Faraj Bayraqdar